

Bright Star Vision

Ghana Village Benefit

Photographs and slide show of Ghanaian children by Dan Ludwig

7-10 pm Saturday, Feb 20th

Suggested donation $20 ~ Children free (doors open at 6:30 pm)

ArtSpace Hartford - 555 Asylum Street

*Limited parking behind building, more across the street
Carpooling & alternative transportation encouraged*

9-10 pm Open Drum Circle

Master Drummer Baba David Coleman

Baba David Coleman is a New Haven based drummer & Artistic Director of Iroko Drum and Dance Society. He specializes in Afro-Caribbean, West African, & Bata drumming and is a Master drum maker. He will lead the drum circle, perform demonstrations and provide various drums for the audience.

MIRA writes from the truth of what he sees in his community. He is emotionally attached to each poem he writes and uses spoken word as a window into his heart to express his love for his people. He calls his work SOAPBOX Poetry because he envisions himself on the corner standing on a soapbox spitting his message to anyone who will listen.

Spoken Word by MIRA

David M. Brown ~ Wandering Minstrel
& informal emcee will bring joy and enthusiasm to the evening

Artwork Display by - Joseph R. Gorneault Jr.
The late Joseph R. Gorneault Sr.
Pierre Sylvain
Phil Bullaro and Len Bullaro

Children's Activities by -
Hope Out Loud

Also: Drumming by Walt, Juggling by Ethan,
Clowning by Margie and more...

Silent Auction
With 31 unique
Ghanaian pieces

African drums, wood carvings jewelry for sale or create your own with authentic glass beads

Appetizers by Asylum Café ~ Beverages available